

Profile

Hey, I'm Kaan!

Passionate Frontend Developer with a background in gaming and music. Gaming sparked my interest in programming, leading me to pursue a career in Frontend Development in 2023. I'm particularly fascinated by the structure of websites and the workings of the internet. I love unleashing my creativity through animations and transitions. Currently, I'm working in sales, where I continue to develop my communication and problem-solving skills.
